Pastor Paul Clark

Prolife leader and Pastor of St. Paul
Lutheran Church in Fowler

Pastor Paul Clark firmly believes that by education and applying love and compassion to those directly affected by the trauma of abortion and euthanasia, the prolife movement will prevail, and our great nation will again uphold the principle of the sanctity of human life.

For the past thirteen years, he has served as Pastoral Counselor for the State Board of Lutherans for Life of Michigan. He has also founded a local Life Issues group in his congregation. Keeping abreast of issues, members of the group seek to educate and inform others concerning these important matters of life and death.

He received his B.A. degree from Concordia University in Mequon, Wisconsin and went on to study for the Holy Ministry earning a Master of Divinity degree in 1988 from Concordia

Theological Seminary in Fort Wayne, Indiana. Upon graduation he was called to serve as pastor of St. Paul Lutheran Church (Missouri Synod) in Fowler, Michigan. He is currently serving this congregation in his twenty-first year as their pastor. He has been active for more than twenty years in the prolife movement and has spoken at Right to Life banquets, rallies, and events throughout the state.

He and his wife Elizabeth have three children through the miracle and blessing of adoption, Alexander, Thaddeus, and Abigail.
